

2010 Candidate Survey Response Summary

Fine arts instruction helps improve student performance in other academic courses.
Yes	No	Undecided	More Info
97%	0%	3%	0%

Fine arts participation reduces dropout rates.
Yes	No	Undecided	More Info
97%	0%	3%	0%

Fine arts study helps prepare students for college.
Yes	No	Undecided	More Info
99%	1%	0%	0%

Creativity fostered through a fine arts education is valued by employers.
Yes	No	Undecided	More Info
86%	5%	6%	3%

Fine arts courses should be in the core curriculum.
Support	Oppose	Undecided	More Info
82%	2%	7%	9%

Students should be removed from fine arts classes for TAKS preparation drills.
Support	Oppose	Undecided	More Info
0%	85%	5%	10%

A blue ribbon task force should be created to study how to increase fine arts education opportunities.
Yes	No	Undecided	More Info
63%	13%	14%	10%

More academic requirements should be added to the required curriculum (thus reducing flexibility).
Support	Oppose	Undecided	More Info
0%	72%	18%	10%

To view each candidate's response that supports this summary, choose the detail view below:

Benefits of Music Education Response Details

Education Priorities Response Details

Opportunity to Study Fine Arts Details